WHOLE NUMBER 830

The 1944 T. M. P. S. Convention-Exhibition At Dubuque, Iowa

The 1944 Annual Convention-Exhibition of the Transmississippi Philatelic Society will be held at the historic, old French, Mississippi River town of Dubuque, Iowa, on October 27, 28 and 29th, under the auspices of the Dubuque Philatelic Society.

While perhaps streamlined in some cases, due to wartime, all of the usual features of a T.M.P.S. convention will be provided. Business meetings of the regional body, a first class stamp show, a dealers bourse, a mail auction, an official seal and cachet, also a convention postal station.

The members of the convention committee are well known stamp collectors and business men of Dubuque, which assures that everything in connection with the affair will be ably handled.

Chairman—Merrill M. Pregler, Box 204.

Secretary—Jos. Sunseri, 1705 Lawndale St.

Publicity—Al. Scharphoff, 2270 Francis St.

Exhibit and Bourse—Harry A. Bradley, 655 Stewart St. address for exhibition prospectus and bourse reservations.

Official Seal and Cachet—Ray Peters, 558 Central Ave., address for information on seal and cachet.

Mail Auction—L. L. Breithaupt, Box 215, address for request of auction catalog.

A number of very interesting collections have been secured for the exhibition that all visitors may enjoy a worth while visit to the show.

Very beautiful worth while cups have been provided for the winners in the different classes of exhibits.

The closing feature of the convention will be a banquet at which the winners will be presented with the awards.

A very enjoyable time is promised by the Host Club to every stamp collector attending the convention.

NEW HARRIS BOOKLET

Under the title of "The War in the Far East", H. E. Harris & Co., of Boston have just issued a handsome booklet, cataloguing the stamps of many of those countries involved in the present war. Featured are the stamps of Russia, Italy and colonies, China, Japan, and many of the British islands, also Philippines. The booklet is beautifully printed and illustrated and contains a great amount of interesting reading besides.

Liberation Of Paris

The beautiful Liberation of Paris cover issued by Capt. Fluegel of Washington, D. C., is printed in five colors, one of the most attractive covers that has ever been designed by L. W. Staehle, the King of Cachet Artists of the last year.

French Cancellation On United States Stamp

This war is producing more unusual covers than have ever before been known to come as a result of any current event. The collector who goes in for a cover collection of the present war will find many strange and unexplainable covers as he builds his collection.

Of the many we have seen and pictured in these columns, one of the most unusual is a cover from Mr. Peter Van Leeuwen of Columbus, Ohio.

We are not attempting an illustration for we doubt if all the points of interest would show up clearly. The cover came on a letter from a French sailor in the Naval Academy at Casa Blanca. It is mailed with a 6c United States Air Mail stamp of the current issue. On the stamp we note what appears to be printed letters "R. F." which would appear to be a surcharge, perhaps to make it a French stamp for use of the French sailors. That may sound like a far fetched idea, but since the imprint is not a part of the cancellation and appears to be printed on the stamp we can think of no other explanation.

At the left of the stamp on the envelope is a double lined hand-stamped circle with an anchor in the center and at top "MARINE FRANCAISE" and at bottom "SERVICE A LA MER." This appears to be handstamped in blue.

Overlapping this handstamp and also on the 6c Air Mail stamp are two other postal cancellations, both identical and both in black. These are a circle around the inside top line of which is the words "POSTE NAVALE." Below this is a star, then in two lines is the date "16-6/44." One cancel is directly on the stamp, the other overlapping the blue handstamp cancel. Near the left edge of the envelope is one of the typical elliptical cancellations so common on old French covers. This is so indistinct that we can not decipher the wording. This same cancellation is also on the back of the cover. The censor's tape is a paper with the word "CONTROLE" in a single lined box. The cover is addressed to Washington, D. C. and is indeed one that will tax the ingenuity of the owner to definitely learn the story of its use.

C. P. S. Has Planned Fall Exhibition

The Chicago Philatelic Society has planned its annual exhibition, bourse, auction and dinner which will be held at the LaSalle Hotel, Chicago October 20, 21, and 22. The exhibition, which will be by invitation, will be held in the Grand Ballroom. This exhibition will be non-competitive as each exhibitor is to receive a reward of Honor.

The auction will be conducted by Stamp Auction Service, and will be handled by CPS members Henry Kuhlmann and Olaf Nagel in the Lincoln room, Friday October 20.

The annual dinner party is on Saturday evening, October 21, in the Century Banquet Room.

Many blue ribbon winners at the APS Convention in Milwaukee, along with other excellent material from highly specialized collections, will be displayed.

Mr. Saul Newbury, CPS Honorary member, will be patron, and Elmer Stuart, General chairman, as in other years.

Stamps At Auction For Linn's Readers

On May 18th, the Washington Stamp Exchange of Newark, N. J. used a full page of space for an auction in June. The results from that sale were so satisfactory that they are again using the entire back page of this issue for another sale. One of the choice and scarce items in this sale is a very fine block of the 1c stamp of 1922-26, perf. 11x10, which came from the coil waste sheets of that period. This item is lot number 124.

There are 294 other choice lots of both fine U. S., foreign, and many choice covers in their next sale which is to be held on October 26th. With the excellent market for good U. S. stamps now at its height, we feel confident that our readers will find much of interest in the offerings this week.

Tell the advertiser you saw it in Linn's.

The Warren J. Brodie Collection To Be Sold At Vahan Mozian Auction

Among the important collections to be sold this Fall via the auction market is the collection of Warren J. Brodie of Cleveland, Ohio. It is probably one of the oldest collections in the United States, being started as early as 1890. Mr. Brodie joined the Garfield-Perry Club in 1892 and has continued his membership ever since. He is also a member of the American Philatelic Society with the low number of 487.

Mr. Brodie was born in New York State and came to Cleveland in 1889. He was Secretary to L. H. Severance, Treasurer of the Standard Oil Co. Of course he was in contact with John D. Rockefeller—in fact he saw him quite often. Rockefeller usually spent his summers at Forest Hill estate. One of Brodie's duties was to deliver important and confidential messages to Mr. Rockefeller. He usually made the trip on his bicycle, and on one of these trips Rockefeller remarked to Brodie "I wish I could ride one of those things. It would help me getting around on the golf course." "Sure you can ride one. I will teach you," replied Brodie. So the next time Brodie made the trip he rented a tandem. He put John on the front seat, gave him a few instructions, got on behind and pushed off. Soon they were riding around the grounds and John D. was doing all the work.

On another occasion when Brodie saw Rockefeller the latter pulled a vest pocket memo book out of his pocket and remarked—"Warren, I see you have been buying some more Standard Oil stock. That's right—you buy all you can. It's going to be good some day." It seems Rockefeller made a note of everyone purchasing Standard Oil stock. However, Brodie was a thrifty Scotchman and needed no coaching. Yes, the stock was good.

When Mr. Severance retired from the Standard Oil Co. in 1910 and established an office in the Arcade he took Brodie with him.

Mr. Brodie indulged in other hobbies besides stamp collecting. He had a complete printing outfit rigged up at his Arcade office. He was his own printer's devil, typesetter and editor. He has also been an enthusiastic yachtsman, nearly all his life having owned several racing yachts. He has a beautiful winter home at Sarasota, Florida.

Mr. Brodie's stamp club activities took place during the 1890's. An interesting incident was related to the writer by Mr. Brodie—About the year 1895 he purchased two gold watches at an auction. Selecting the one he thought was the better time piece, he offered the other one to the Garfield-Perry Club member who exhibited the best U. S. collection during the year. The watch was won by W. H. Buerger. The writer knew Mr. Buerger and ascertained from him that he still had the watch and it was still keeping good time. The watch

Let's Tell About America By Use Of Illustrative Post Office Cancellation

The incentive for this bit of copy is a letter from Mr. Walter C. Brink of Genesee Depot, Wisconsin. He encloses a clipping from the Milwaukee Sentinel which we reprint as follows:

"IDEA
"Why should postoffice cancellation stamps be all the same in form? Why couldn't each city have a distinctive cancellation stamp? For example New York's stamp would include a picture of Father Knickerbocker, the Empire State Building or a sketch of Manhattan's skyline. Philadelphia's stamp would have a picture of the Liberty Bell; Brooklyn's stamp, a sketch of the Brooklyn Bridge; Atlantic City's stamp, a piece of salt water taffy; Cheyenne's, a bucking bronco, etc."

Although printed in the Sentinel with the caption "IDEA," it is by no means a new idea but ideas appeal to us and we believe might become a very valuable and worthy idea for propaganda for America and more particularly for the great towns and cities of America.

Collectors of stamps are familiar with the early cancellations of many varieties which are identified with a great many cities of the country. These however were not of the type that would advertise or publicize a city or town for the reason that there was seldom any connection between the picture in the cancel or the town from which it came yet collectors have identified many of those old cancellations as form certain cities or towns.

In later years we have often seen our Postoffice Department issue for use a special cancellation for some of the large expositions and for other events even so small as a Stamp Society Convention. Now and then a State Fair has been marked by a special postal cancellation.

The idea as expressed in the clipping from the Sentinel goes a bit farther than the Department has yet gone and would seem to be a very splendid and well worth while though for full consideration.

Perhaps the closest we come to any such form or style of postal cancellation is the variety of slugs which are supplied by the users of the Meter machines. In strictly stamp circles, the earlier Precanceled stamps were splendid examples of city cancellations in many instances.

Collection of the very distinctive early Precancel prints would be a very attractive and worth while collection for any stamp collector whether interested in precancels or otherwise.

The use of distinctive cancellation design for the towns and cities of America would be a very splendid way to mark our cities and towns and would lend extraordinary support to interest in stamps and stamp collecting for school children, with a resultant wider and more thorough knowledge and understanding of America and its great cities.

Of course, such a plan for cancellations would be a very costly one for the Postoffice department in the manufacture of distinctive and individual cancel stamps for different cities, it would also require a much larger plant to produce these dies in their wide range of variety.

As for cost, we feel confident

THOUGHTS WHILE WRITING A COLUMN—I promised a column on "pressure groups" but so many things have come up since I started writing it, and since I try to write with some degree of authority, I am deferring the column for a week while I gather statistics. I'd like twenty-five readers to sit down and drop me a post card so that I may write to them from time to time in order to get the re-action of collectors. I can always ask dealers what they think, but they're dealers and this is a collectors' column and should reflect the opinion of other collectors. Won't you sit down and drop me a penny post card care of Linn's Weekly Stamp News, Sidney, Ohio and tell me you'll let me write you for your opinion on subjects as they arise. Do it now, and thank you.

...Wouldn't it be wonderful if stamp collectors had one organization that was so important and did such fine work for our hobby that we would beg to be admitted....Such an organization could bring sufficient pressure upon the post office to aid and not deter collectors....Such an organization could insist upon and get philatelic cancellations even if Mr. Slick Paper doesn't think it is necessary....Such an organization could induce collectors to sell their vast supply of U. S. mint stamps so that the over-issued three cent commems, and even some of the two centers would start to mean something in the price lists....Maybe then all the philatelic papers would sit down to a round table and start to co-operate with one another instead of pulling different ways, because while most of them agree, one or two and especially one, keeps its nose in the air and the nose is so high the altitude has the editor dizzy....Maybe then the voice of collectors would be heard when certain columnists decide that the stamps they own are "the coming thing" and unload them on unsuspecting collectors who believe everything they read....Such an organization could make possible a stamp museum located in a metropolitan center (not New York) where collectors and dealers could gaze upon specialized collections that now see the light of day only when there is an exhibition that lasts a day or two. Such a museum would encourage non-collectors to adopt the hobby and that would aid everyone connected with philately. While you'll agree that such an idea is excellent I wonder how many successful dealers would contribute a substantial sum of money to such a project?....What will happen after the war if air mail stamps become obsolete because all first class mail will be flown. Do you think present air mail stamps will become real rarities? It could happen!....With the termination of the war in the European theater, Americans will be writing to Europe and I have heard no plans from the Third Assistant Postmaster about some kind of stamp that will help sell America, and while it is true that food and clothing will make them grateful to America, there is nothing like advertising to keep them aware of us....

Looking through the catalogue I noticed no U. S. air mail has the picture of a human being thereon, and don't flood the mail by telling me you see a pilot in one of the planes. You don't see him at all because he is bending over tying his shoe lace. Keep your magnifying glass where it belongs. There ain't no men in the planes, mister, honest injun. Now watch Joe Floss from Ploopen-gazzy, Arkansas write in and tell me he sees a guy in the tower of the building on C18....Have you ever noticed the worn out special delivery stamp we are using these days? A little seventeen year old item that looks like something the cat dragged in if the cat would have anything to do with a character as pictured on that stamp. You can get a new post office costing a million bucks by voting for the right man, but try and get some modern looking postage stamps (Look here, Case, lay off the post office department, they have enough troubles working overtime lousing up the manufacturers of first day covers by changing values of proposed stamps)....Add facts looking through the catalogue—Washington appears 40 times as illustrated on U. S. stamps in the catalogue, followed by Franklin appearing 17 times, Lincoln 11 and Jefferson 13 times....How can you call it a Presidential series when Franklin is on the one center and Martha (My you make swell candy) Washington on the cent and halfer?....I see that broken-down plane is still on the air mails in use now and no proposed new ones. And this is the country that leads all others in new plane designs, but our air mails show a crate that wouldn't fly if it had too. (That's enough about the post office out of you, Case.)

TO THE WEISS GUY—An Indiana gremlin informs me that while you were fishing near Logansport two vultures swooped down, took one look at you and as they flew back into the stratosphere the gremlin heard one vulture say to the other, "Pardon me, bud, I thought it was alive." Do you know what Weiss would say if he heard that? He'd give that cute smile of his and say, "Nothing vultured, nothing gained." You see what I have to put up with, folks? And me what's hitting the trail for Milwaukee very soon and probably will have to go out to Harry's house to dinner for a four inch steak smothered in mint Zepps. The life of a columnist isn't all it's cracked up to be, and don't get me wrong, you don't have to be cracked to be a columnist. You don't HAVE to be. But it helps.

K. BILESKE—I have never met K. Bileski, but it is one of my fondest hopes that the next time he comes out of the frozen north I will have that pleasure. While I don't know the gentlemen his ads read as though he had a terrific sense of humor and there is no question but that he is a smart lad at writing ads. I headquarter in New York, but can always be reached through the Editor, Mr. Bileski, and I certainly would like to meet you and perhaps get your slant on a few stamp items.

MAIL—I am still waiting for letters from collectors OR dealers who have something to get off their chest. This is your column and I shall cheerfully print your pet gripe if you'll only let me know.

There is a huge monetary inflation and considerable inflation in stamp prices but it has not touched the Farley reissue. Their pedigree is as good as any stamp and in quantity issued they average out less than the 5c Norse. They should prove to be a very good buy at today's prices. FOR SALE—PHILATELIC LITERATURE

Since 1936 I have accumulated a large collection of PHILATELIC and other literature of various kinds which I now wish to dispose of. Among other journals I have the following Stamp Papers in almost complete files for the years named:

WESTERN STAMP COLLECTOR for years 1937 to 1942, almost complete.
LINN'S WEEKLY STAMP NEWS for years 1938 to 1944, almost complete.
STAMP REVIEW 1938 to 1942. AMERICAN PHILATELIST 1936 to 1941.

THE HOBBY REPORTER for several years. THE NATIONAL STAMP NEWS, complete from first to last issue. STAMPS, 1938-1939 complete. THE COVER COLLECTOR, 1949-1941 complete. THE WHITE ELEPHANT complete 1937, '38, '39. S. P. A. JOURNAL, VOL. 1, NO. 1 to 1940 complete. 110 CATALOGUES OF STAMP AUCTIONS 1936 to 1944, many of these show prices obtained, and are a real source of information of stamp values for the STAMP COLLECTOR. I also have SCOTT'S CATALOGUE, U. S., for 1937 to 1943 inclusive, except 1938. In addition to the above I have many, dozens, of other philatelic catalogues and books, that are valuable to any Philatelic Library.

I also have a file of ESQUIRE magazine for the years March to November 1936 and 1937, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42 and January to May 1943, a total of 83 copies of this SEX eaten journal, that is now, due to the sickening tone of our Post Office Department, not permitted to use Second Class mailing privileges, although a lot of slimy, FASCIST DISH RAGS, masquerading as NEWS PAPERS (sic) are freely permitted to circulate through the mail. These copies of ESQUIRE that I have will very likely cheer and pep you up, so give me a bid for them. First offer of $50.00 gets them, F. O. B. HERE.

Also I have almost a complete file of KEN, a magazine that appeared early in 1938 and then, suddenly folded up and disappeared in the latter part of 1939, after exposing the evident plans of JAPAN to invade South America when they figured that they were ready. I have 41 copies of KEN. The first offer of $10.00 gets them, F. O. B. HERE.

Also I have many other papers and journals, mostly early issues of them, and I would be glad to hear from you, if interested. Drop me a line.

Year Book and Roster

We are working on new Year Book and Membership Roster for the year 1944-45 and hope to be able to get it out to you in October. There are, at present, two factors delaying our progress, the negligence of the members whose membership fees are due to send in their dues and the correspondence required in arranging our advertisers' copy.

All members up to and including #457, who have not paid their dues for this year, are or will be arrears if they do not get their quarter in here before we go to press on October 16th. This is final notice that if your dues are unpaid on October 16th, you will not be included in the new listing. Also notify us of any changes in address or classification of collecting so that we may correct your present listing.

Rates for advertising in the Year Book will be the same as last year, even in the face of increasing costs in all lines, $7.50 for full page, $5.00 for half page and $3.50 for quarter page ads. There will also be available for members, card ads at $1.00 apiece to contain only your name, address and number, ten cards to a page, for those who desire this prominence. The book will be considerably larger than last year's issue, with an immediate distribution to around 625 active members, with a total printing of 750 copies to take care of our new members as they join the club.

This is not a weekly paper or magazine that will be discarded after being read, but an official reference handbook that will be used the year around. For this reason and in consideration of the low advertising rates, it is really a worthwhile proposition for anyone who has material of a patriotic or war nature to sell. Get in your copy, your payments and your membership fees by October 16th and let's go for

Equitable Stamp Company Enters Mail-Order Field

The Equitable Stamp Company announces that Earl N. Levitt recently joined the firm as a partner. Mr. Levitt is the brother of Albert H. Levitt, founder of the company.

The new partner was discharged from his commission as a First Lieutenant in the Army of the United States because of an injury sustained at Camp Pickett, Virginia. He was in a Tank Destroyer unit. In June, Earl was reappointed to his commission and is now on the inactive list.

With the association of Mr. Levitt, the company will enter mail order business, a new field for this firm. To accommodate the future needs of this work, their offices were re-organized and re-decorated. Extensive plans were completed for advertising and the servicing of collectors' wants.

PLANNING FOR THE COMING SEASON

For some time past we have been planning for the future. Not so much the very immediate future, as for the next several years. Naturally, the immediate future is the first thing that must be taken care of and as our plans for that mature we will be on our way toward our goal for the coming years. One of our plans has to do with a more thorough contact with the stamp dealers of America. We recognize and realize that the prosperity and success of the stamp dealer is to our interest as well as theirs. Our plans for the future include frequent mailings of special literature to a large number of dealers. We hope through this method to lend a hand in some instances. Our effort will be to offer suggestions and give information which should benefit any dealer who may choose to follow them. It will require much time to cover many subjects in a thorough manner, but each mailing will contain information or suggestions that will be beneficial to some. Collectors often gather the idea that the stamp dealer is an unnecessary evil of stamp collecting. This is a mistake however for our hobby is of such proportions and dimensions that the dealer is a vital part of it. Without the hobby having been exploited to the extent to which it has, the value of your stamp collection would be trivial in comparison to its present worth.

Geo. W. Linn

Without the stamp dealer there would be no stamp publications. For the best interests of our hobby and for the best interest of your stamps and stamp collection, it is necessary that the collector, the dealer and the publisher work together. Our interests are mutual.

The increase in our subscription price to 50c per year was made to help us add the necessary help in our office, in order that we might better serve both our advertising patrons and our readers.

Plans are now completed for this additional help and with the coming of October, we hope to set our future plans in motion.

With the steady increase in circulation that this publication has enjoyed, we have also had a steady increase in advertising patronage and we hope to increase both in the coming years.

It will not be long after the war until plenty of paper will be available. Who knows what will happen then. We anticipate frequent 12 page issues of this paper and have hopes that we can develop it to that size as a regular issue.

We are now printing and mailing over 17,000 copies weekly. Our operating costs, due to our location and to the type of paper we offer you coupled with the most modern method of production, makes our production cost lower than that of any other Philatelic paper. It is for that reason that we can maintain a subscription rate so low that all can afford it, even though they do take other papers and that we can quote advertising rates which no other publication can match on the basis of cost per inch, per 1000 circulation.

It is for these reasons that stamp dealers who give various stamp papers a thorough test, have usually found Linn's near to or at the top of the list in pulling power.

UNUSUAL APPEAL TO COLLECTORS

Retail merchants, and every stamp dealer is just a retail merchant, usually try to produce advertising copy that will attract attention and thus bring business. Too few stamp dealers ever give any serious thought to the preparation of their advertising copy. They do not endeavor to produce an advertisement that because of its unusual wording or arrangement, it will attract attention for after all an advertisement must be read if one is to hope to get results from it. If your advertisement attracts the interest of a collector, he will read your message. If he reads your message, he may be impelled to write you a letter, thus a contact is established with an interested party who proposes to become a customer. From that point it is up to the advertiser to make a real customer out of that person.

There are various ways of making an appeal through advertising space. One simple way is the use of large space which in itself attracts and commands attention. A fine example of this is the use of a page each month by George Wentz. Last week we had a page from Mr. K. Bileski, but he went further than the use of a page, he presented a new thought in his copy which if followed up will result in a new field for him. This is certain to be copied by other dealers for it is a natural division in our hobby. If you did not read that page advertisement last week, look it up and read it now.

Other full pages in prospect are the full page auction of the Washington Stamp Exchange. This Company ran a full page auction in the past summer and had splendid results from it. They should have even better results at this season of the year.

Another full page is coming up for cover collectors. Paul F. Goldstein of Brooklyn is to offer a full page of fine covers for all collectors. Just watch for this page and see what a splendid line of covers are offered.

Other advertisements with unusual and novel appeal are the offerings of the Elm Stamp Co., of Atlanta, Ga. They have taken the well known "Book of the Month Club" and offer "Stamps of the Month." They report excellent results from the space they have used and tell us that Linn's Weekly is far out pulling other papers they have used.

Give thought to the preparation of your advertising copy and you will attract the better and more thoughtful collector, for they appreciate and enjoy novel and worth while offerings of stamps in which they are interested.

The National Aviation Commemorative Of Bolivia

On September 23, 1924 the Republic of Bolivia issued a set of seven stamps to commemorate the founding of the National School of Aviation to train aviators for the army. It is a beautiful series engraved and printed by Perkins, Bacon & Co., Ltd. of London. The stamps quite appropriately bear pictures of planes and aviators. There are two types: one for the centavo and one for the boliviano denominations.

This issue has unfortunately been the subject of a most serious error in cataloguing. It appears that the editor of the Scott catalogue belived the stamps to have been issued for use on air mail because of the illustrations and catalogued them as such. But the listing is absurd since at the time these stamps were issued there existed no air mail in Bolivia and there was no reason for issuing air mail stamps!

Later, when the Scott editor discovered his error, it would seem, it was too inconvenient to correct not only the catalogue but also the printed albums. The stamps, therefore, continue to be listed as air mail stamps. However, the editor inserted a note which reads: "These stamps were available for ordinary postage until flight routes were established." This sentence on its face is correct because the Aviation Commemoratives as well as all current Bolivian stamps were available for the payment of the air mail fee when the air service was started in August 1925. But, of course, the statement is very misleading as it gives the impression that the government issued these stamps for air mail and since there was no air mail at the time of issue they were to be used on ordinary mail until the air mail should be established. This impression is quite erroneous.

It is interesting to note that the foreign catalogues—Gibbons, Yvert and Tellier, and Michel—all list the stamps in question as ordinary postage stamps.

This error was, of course, absorbed by the Sanabria catalogue when the Scott Airpost Catalogue was taken over by that publisher.

Copies of the National Aviation Commemoratives are being offered in the market in imperforate condition. These are probably plate proofs which got into philatelic hands when the firm of Perkins, Bacon & Co., Ltd., was dissolved and their private reference collection was sold to a British dealer. There also exist copies that stamps bring very high prices on the current market?

We are willing and able to follow this trend and are prepared to pay cash prices for stamps whether they are in the form of a highly specialized collection or just "dumped" into a shoe box. At the moment we are also interested in cheap and medium-priced used U. S. postage and revenues in quantities of 100 or more. Drop us a line and let us know what you have to offer won't you?
COSMOPOLITAN STAMP COMPANY
1457 B'way (Times Square) N. Y. C.

the latter part of August for United Nations Relief. Stamps are all of 5 centimes denomination and feature a white robed negress extending her arms toward advancing victims of the war. In the background is a damaged building. In the center is the inscription "UNITED NATIONS RELIEF" and to the right is a cross and a large V. At the bottom are the words "Aid to the Victims of the War." These stamps are used in addition to regular postage (compulsory) and the proceeds go to the Relief fund. Colors are olive-green, blue, purple, and slate.
—Jos. Silver

LEBANON—Postage & Air mail commemoratives. An Independence issue of 4 postage and 6 air mails. The postage values are: 25pi., deep pink, parliament building; 50 pi., turquoise blue, government building; 150pi., light blue, parliament building; and 200pi., dull violet government building. The air mails are: 25pi., yellow-green, and 50pi., orange, view of Bahamoun; 100pi., orange, and 200pi., lilac, Citadel of Rachaya, and 300pi., sage-green, and 500pi., sepia, view of Beyrouth. The stamps were re-signed by P. Koroleff. It is also understood that 300 sets were released imperforate.
—Colonial Stamp Co.

RUSSIA—Commemoratives. A series of 7 stamps were issued to commemorate the 20th anniversary of Lenin's death. Six of the designs are similar to the 1934 issue (540-545) but values have all been changed. All stamps have the dates 1924-1944 prominently shown. Values, colors and designs are:

30K Indigo & Black - Lenin as a child.
30K Brown orange & Carmine - Lenin and Stalin.
45K Indigo and Black - Lenin as a youth.
50K Indigo and Black - Lenin.
60K Indigo and Black - Lenin in the dictator.
1R Brown and Blue - Lenin tomb.
3R Orange and Slate blue - Lenin and Stalin.
—John G. Ross

SYRIA—A new portrait set of two values - picturing Shurki Koutatly, new president has been received. The values are the 200-pi., brown, and 500pi., blue. The stamps were designed by P. Koroleff, and feature a likeness of the lawyer who has been prominent in the movement to cure independence for Syria, and, as a candidate of the Nationalist Party was elected to the Presidency in July, 1943.

Best Presidential

One of the most asked questions of late is "what should I look for in Precancels" or "what is good?" In order to somewhat answer the question I have given some highlights of my general collection from time to time. This time though we want to call attention to a Presidential Bureau that has come to the spotlight in the last few catalogs and has blossomed forth into a semi-rarity with the potentiality of becoming a real rarity. For a long time the 13c Dallas Tex. Wide with Texas abbreviated was the best of all Presidential Bureaus but oddly enough it remained for another item from Dallas to crowd it out of the spotlight. Its the 8c Presidential in the Wide type but with Texas spelled out in full, listed in Hoovers as 280B. In the last catalog it was quoted at two bits but it now has rang the bell for $3.00. I don't think there is another Presidential that can top that. I have a fine copy but for one exception, it is post cancelled. Maybe I'll be glad I got even that. That whole series of Wide type, Texas spelled out in full are pretty good because they were not in use so long. The series consists of the ½c, 1c, 2c, 7c, 8c, 11c, 13c and 20c.

Notes

Noted a Walkersville Md. in a lot of Missouri items. A dealer did it too. It happens often the Md. looks a lot like Mo., if not very plain. Every now and then I come across some old approval sheets about half sold out from my stock of a few years back. It certainly is interesting and gratifying to see the stuff some collectors passed up. Its nothing for items to be three or four times the value I had on them, especially the wide defense items. Then I charged 5c for most of the stuff, now you will pay 10c to 25c for the same thing. No I never thought they would do that or I would have kept them.—Hoover's last Auction list carries corrections for the 28th edition Bureau Catalog.

WARREN J. BRODIE COLLECTION TO BE SOLD

Brodie selected went out of action in three or four years. Early in October 1940 the Garfield-Perry Club decided to honor its oldest continuous member with a special meeting which it called "Brodie Night." The writer arranged to have both Mr. Brodie and Mr. Buerger at the meeting. He also arranged with the Cleveland Plain Dealer to send a reporter and a photographer there. There was a turnout of nearly 50 at the meeting. The photographer took a picture of Brodie and Buerger sitting side by side. Buerger now nearly 80 years old was holding the watch still bright and shiny and still ticking merrily along up to Brodie's ear. The picture was published in the Plain Dealer together with a nice write-up. Mr. Brodie entertained the members with amusing incidents of his early collecting days. He related how a chap by the name of Murdock came to see him one day and bought several of his duplicates. He came a few days later and asked Brodie to let him take the book out as he wanted to sell some to a friend. Brodie let him take it. He is still waiting for Murdock to report.

Once on a visit to Texas he met some people who knew of his interest in stamps. They told him of a family who had some Confederate correspondence. He called on this family and asked to see the stuff. They allowed him to do so, but informed him that a boy had gone through it some years before. Nevertheless, Brodie looked it over. The boy had cleaned it out pretty thoroughly, but passed up a diagonal half of a 20c Confederate stamp on cover used as 10c. He probably didn't want any half stamps. This cover will be sold at the coming auction.

The auction will be conducted by the well known firm of Vahan Mozian Inc., 505 Fifth Avenue, New York.

ASSASSINATION—ABDICATION!

Two world shaking events of our time! The assassination of Ferdinand of Bosnia starting the First World War and the Abdication of King Edward for the lovely Wally Simpson. We have been fortunate in acquiring a supply of covers immortalizing these events. Beautifully cacheted Scott's B46 mailed at Monts, France, on date of wedding of Duke and Bosnia B13-15 on First Day Cover with Red Cancellation mailed at Sarajevo, very rare. Both are real collector's items deserving of a place by themselves in your collection. Each cover 50c. Both for $1.00. With each order for 2 covers we will include free of charge a set of rare Spanish Loyalist Issues. These stamps were issued during the Civil War and are seldom seen. They retail at 15c per set, when sold separately. All orders sent postpaid, satisfaction guaranteed. Send for yours today!

vided the city would pay the cost of the new cancellation stamps. As for production, it would employ a large number of new men in a new industry which would be created by the use of such individual cancellation stamps.

As for stamps and stamp collecting it would open up a new field which would become one of the most popular fields for American collectors and would result in a great rush for these new cancellations by collectors and a resultant sale of more stamps.
